Be Filled!

It has been said, those who turn the world upside down has come to our town (Acts 17:6). That was one assessment of the early church. What is the world saying about us today? Are we on fire for God? We celebrated Pentecost last Sunday! And we learned that in practice, Pentecost should be every day for the believer. Let us explore!

We must not be drunk with wine, but be filled with the Spirit (Ephesians 5:18). This is the responsibility of every believer. We ought to pursue God! We must meditate on God's word day and night. This will make our way prosperous. That is the success we need. This continuous filling will give old men dreams and young men vision. Are you filled? Can you prove it?

We read of the latter day rain. This is the description given to prophecies of God's visitation on his people in the end times (Joel 2:28-29). What a tragedy for an individual to grieve or quench the Spirit! On the other hand we ought to ask for a fresh baptism of the Holy Ghost (Luke 11:3). God's mercy are new daily (Lamentations 3:22-23). Start afresh!

Just a friendly reminder. The things of God are done by the Spirit of God. We are human instruments, but it should be God working through us. Romans 8:14, confirms God's intent. This is why we must study to show ourselves approved. We will be tested. For it is through much tribulation that we enter the kingdom of God! Waiting on the Spirit will renew our strength. Yes, we will mount up on wings like eagles (Isaiah 40:31).

We are commissioned to take the gospel world wide! Jesus is here with us. He is willing to do what he has always done. He promised to baptize us in the Holy Spirit!. We will be empowered to do the works of God! We read of the signs and wonders done in the early church (Hebrews 2:4)! He wants to do that again. Jesus is the same (Hebrews 13:8). This is one way the prophecies are fulfilled (Mathew 8:16-17).

Many prophets and righteous men desired to learn about our status today. How blessed are our eyes (Mathew 13:16-17). The power of God is inexhaustible! God will always answer those who come to him sincerely. He is knocking on the door of our hearts today. Let him in and be filled with the Spirit!
